Community Anti-Racism Project:

Exploring Diversity in our Neighbourhood

Wednesday, January 30th, 2013

(5:30-9:00pm)

Tuesday, March 12th, 2013

(5:30-9:00pm)

To be held at:

Firefighters Banquet Hall

6515 Bonsor Avenue Burnaby, B.C.

Come share your thoughts and explore your creative side with us

Who?:

- New and long term Burnaby residents
- Parents and children (ages 6 and up)
- Youth
- Adults
- Seniors
- Persons with varying abilities
- Community service providers
- City of Burnaby representatives
- Employers/Business representatives

Why?:

- Meet those who live in your community
- Explore your creative side
- Have fun
- Contribute ideas towards an anti-racism mural

Through creative activities we will explore:

- Individual experiences with racism
- Community responses to racism
- Media, cultural and family influences towards racism
- Learning from each other and moving beyond racism
- Celebrating diversity

You will have the opportunity to collaborate with artists and other community members in the areas of:

- Visual Art
- Creative movement and music
- Story Telling
- Drama

(no experience necessary to participate)

There is also an opportunity to become part of the mural design committee. Committee members will work with the artist to:

- Identify themes from the gatherings
- Develop the mural design
- Paint the mural

A light dinner will be provided at each gathering. To participate you must register. (Space is limited)
